

Press, radio, TV

A range of the varied activities carried out with the purpose of sharing and giving visibility to the Center's research are shown below. The press, in its different formats and in collaboration with the Audio-visual Department of UNED (CEMAV), has always constituted an important source for disseminating our research activity.

